The second act, introducing "Good Queen Bese," was listened to with attention, and from that time the audience seemed spell-bound by the play. "Mary Stuart" may justly be regarded as one of Madame Modjeska's greatest and most legitimate triumphs. In her personation of the royal martyr she towers so grandly that every other character on the scene with her is dwarfed into comparative insignificance. Especially is this noticeable in the grand scene which takes place at the meeting of the rival Queens, where "Mary," after forcing herself to become a humble suppliant, is stung by the taunts of the powerful "Elizabeth" into an invective which is launched with such a concentrated hate upon the head of the English Queen as to send her, raging and baffled, from the field, and leaves the captive mistress of the situation. President Cleveland's indiscriminate veto of pension bills has raised a howl all over the country, and in very many cases his action is shown to have been most arbitrary and unjust. The following is part of an article furnished the Milwankee Telegraph by E. M. Rogers of Viroqua. It speaks of a case which he is personally knowing to:

"Sunday, July 4th, the writer was riding up one of the valleys from the Kfekapoo, and near the head halted at a poor log house, with one room, a broken stove, a few worn-out chairs, bed with scanty covering, eight children from three to sixteen years, poorly clad, shoeless, bonnetless and hatless. The provisions were the milk of one cow and bread earned by a boy fourteen years old. On that worn-out farm was growing a little patch of potatoes,

It was a year on the 23d ult. since the death of the nation's great Captain. Yet but little more than $122,000 has been subscribed for the erection of the proposed monument at Riverside Park In spite of this fact, New York is rustling about trying to raise a fund for a monumental testimonial for Gladstone, "the grand old man." They may succeed, but meanwhile shall the grave of the nation's hero be neglected? The indifference manifested by New York in the matter of raising the necessary amount for a suitable monument above the last resting place of Gen. Grant—the nation's savior—is a shame and a reproach to her, and one that should be speedily wiped out.

At last he made a wild surge, cleared a space around him, threw his slouch had on the sidewalk, and started in to whip the growd. He might have done some execution if he had had a chance, but before he knew how it was done he was flat on his stomach, with a couple of the bystanders sitting on him.

The Grand Army parade in San Francisco on Tuesday proved, as was expected, the biggest affair of the kind ever witnessed. Full accounts of the affair were telegraphed to the Times, and appeared in Wednesday's issue. Some interesting episodes not hitherto published have since come to hand, and published have since come to hand, and the same for the many read-published have since come to hand, and are herewith given for the many readers who are interested in all that pertains to the veteran visitors:

A pleasing feature of the Maine contingent was the presence of a vivandiere, a Maine lassie by the name of Louise Boardman, who comes from the extreme point of United States soil—Oaliais, Maine. Governor Robis, the Executive of that State, was also a humble comrade in the ranks, quietly keeping his place among the others, and being unseen by many.

This was followed by a list of names of several distinguished citizens of the metropolis, who are no doubt repre-sentatives of the San Franciscans who "want the earth."
The short-term election has been held; but as to the long-term, would it not be well for San Francisco to "wait not be well for San Francisco to "wait till the crowd rolls by," and hear from the rural districts?

With few exceptions, the prominent business men of San Francisco are rather prominent in coming forward to rather prominent in coming forward to take everything in sight.

Having been represented in the Senate by the late Senator Miller, and being represented now by Senators Stanford and Hearst, San Franciscans may be kept in the background by their extreme modesty, in only asking for both the United States Senators, the Governor, five or six of the seven justices of Supreme Court, and the majority of the flying engine, and there will be a dreadful calamity to report. the New Hotel is Now Open and Ready for Guests.

The famous Escondide Tract contains 12,814 acres loc-ted 35 miles north of San D ego d 12 miles east of Encinitias Station on the California Southern Eslicosd. The soil has no perfor; the water supply is abundant and crops have never faile i; bearing orehards and neyards attest the truth of the assertion that irrigation is not necessary in "The Sun-kissed Vale of the South," What has been done? The townsite of Escondido is in the center of the tract and embraces among other improvements a fine hotel, costing with furniture $20,000; a abile schoolhouse of brick will cost $3000. Lands to the value of $250,000 have been donated to the control of the company as an endowment for the Escondido College. Forty buildings have been all in sixty days. Daily stages cannect with the California Southern Railway at Encinits station. Fertile soil, no irrigation, equable climate.

Rend the following opinion of Escondido from Gen. Stuart Stanley, late of Her laiesty's India Service: "For a happy combination of climate, soil and scenery, united to commanding commercial situation, Escondido stands wholly unrivalled in that belt of unshine extending from Los Angeles to the frontier of Mexico."

Every fruit-grower needs an evaporator. The fruit annually wasted on the Pacific Coast would, rightly cured, go far toward supplying this want. The evaporator is the growers brake upon a down grade of prices. The AMERICAN is pre-en.inently the fruit-raisers machine. Its sizes grade from domestic to manufacturing wants. It makes the highest quality of work with ordinary care in handling. There is no need of making anything cleating the approve a slight use of sulphur, the AMERICAN is specially adapted for highest grade in unbleached work. It places fresh cut fruit first in highest and dryest heat; cures suit surfaces at once and keeps them dry, thereby sotting and making perment the color, and also, thereby, as in brolling steaks, securing the highest quality in product. We place our experience in evaporating at the disposal of our customers. In some cases this granuite cuts and Illustrated Manual sent on application,

A sad accident occurred on Tuesday in the family of Mr. Weldon. While the parents were absent from the room, their five-year-old daughter threw a small can of kerosepe upon the kitchen stove, which, exploding, set fire to her clothing, and she was very badly burned before it was possible to rescue her. Dr. Kellogg was sent for, and though he did all that was possible to alleviate her suffering, she died in a few hours.

ence of the TIMES. ANAHRIM, Aug. 5 .- The wine business of Anaheim is looking up. Several fine large wineries have been erected the past year. Mr. Conrad's will soon be ready for occupancy. William Smith, at Orangethorpe, has his nearly completed, and Tim. Boeys having lately, in connection with some Arizona (ellows, organized a wine company, has added another large wooden tuilding to the establishment near the depot, and will put an agent on the road to solicit orders and sell wine.

The losses of Mr. Hildebrand by the recent fire have just been satisfactorily adjusted by the insurance companies.

Quite a number of Anaheim people, and among them your correspondent, had the pleasure of hearing the great Modjeska at Los Angeles this week.

Benton's Hair Grower.

All who are bald, all who are becoming bald, all who do not want to be bald, all who are tronbled with dandruff, or itching of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty per cent. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been baid and glazed for years. We have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in eighty cases out of a hundred, no matter how long bald.
Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff Benton's Hair Grower.

EVE, EAR AND HEART dent to females, successfully treated by M. HILTON WILLIAMS

CHAS. VICTOR HALL, 10% South Spring street

The applications are made to reach every part of the diseased surface in the most direct and positive manner; instantaneously penetrating every cell and cavity of the head communicating with the nostrils. In this manner we have treated the most obstinate cases of catarrh with complete success, after all other attempts have failed,— we care not how long the disease may have continued, or from what cause it did arise. Every case of catarrh is curable.

The fellowing are the distinguishing features of our mode of treatment:

1. A single application gives immediate comfort, and relieves at once the most distressing and painful symptoms.

2. The hardened secretions are softened and removed, causing the greatest amount of relief to the sufferer,

3. The ulcerated surface is decdorized, every unpleasant smell is removed, and the breath is restored to its natural sweetness and purity.
